BACKGROUND

1. What's the objective of the requested action?
   Authority for KCDC to enter into a binding PSA and Development Agreement to sell 0.81 acres to Dominion for $469,800. The land will be used by Dominion as part of a 230-unit market-rate apartment complex.

2. Why is the action needed now?

3. Who are the parties involved and what are their roles (if appropriate)?
   Dominion is a private, for profit real estate developer based in Knoxville. Dominion recently acquired several parcels of vacant land adjacent to the Property and intends to incorporate the Property into their master plan.

4. What are the long term and short term exposures to KCDC?
   The Development Agreement and Special Warranty Deed provides for a revisionary right back to KCDC in the event Dominion does not perform its obligations under the Development Agreement.

HISTORICAL / TRANSACTIONAL INFORMATION (who, when, where)
   The Board has previously obtained board approval to enter into an LOI with Dominion for the sale of the Property.

2. Earnest Money. Within two (2) business days after the Effective Date, Purchaser shall deposit with a title insurance agency selected by Purchaser and reasonably acceptable to Seller (the "Escrow Agent") Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) in cash or certified or cashier's check as earnest money (the "Earnest Money"). Said Earnest Money may be refundable to Purchaser in accordance with Section 4 hereof.

3. Purchase Price. The purchase price (the "Purchase Price") of the Property shall be an amount equal to $469,800.00. At the Closing, all Earnest Money shall be applied to the Purchase Price, and the balance of the Purchase Price shall be paid in cash or certified or cashier's check.

4. Inspection Period; Refund of Earnest Money; Due Diligence Materials. Purchaser shall have a period of thirty (30) days from the Effective Date of this Agreement ("Inspection Period") to conduct such investigative diligence with respect to the Property as Purchaser deems appropriate and to elect to either continue or terminate this Agreement. Purchaser may terminate this Agreement, and receive a full refund of the Earnest Money, by delivering written termination notice to Seller at any time prior to expiration of the Inspection Period. If Purchaser does not so terminate this Agreement, the Earnest Money shall thereafter be nonrefundable (except as expressly otherwise set forth in this Agreement) and this Agreement shall remain in effect.

Within five (5) days after the Effective Date, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser at Purchaser's sole expense the information more particularly described on Schedule 4 hereto to the extent such information is with Seller's possession or control (the "Due Diligence Materials").

Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that, except as otherwise expressly set forth in Section 9 herein, Seller has not made and will not make any representations or warranties, express or implied, pertaining to the Property, its condition or any other matters whatsoever, and that Purchaser will be relying solely on its own inspections and investigations with respect to the Property, its condition and all

(c) Each and every representation and warranty of Seller set forth in Section 9 shall be true and correct in all material respects, and Seller shall not be in default under any of its obligations under this Agreement, as of Closing.

(d) Seller's Board of Commissioners shall have voted on and approved this Agreement and the Development Agreement at a regularly scheduled meeting.

7. Closing. At Closing, Seller shall convey to Purchaser good, marketable and insurable title to the Property by special warranty deed, subject to (i) standard exceptions for real property taxes not yet due and payable, and (ii) any other matters which are waived by, or acceptable to, Purchaser pursuant to Section 8 (the "Permitted Exceptions"). Such special warranty deed shall contain the reversionary rights described in Section 15 hereof.

8. Title. Within five (5) days of the Effective Date, Purchaser shall procure a title insurance commitment in the amount of the Purchase Price covering the Property issued by a title insurance company selected by Purchaser (the "Title Commitment"). 1. Property. Seller hereby agrees to sell to Purchaser and Purchaser hereby agrees to purchase from Seller the Property on the terms set forth herein.

2. Earnest Money. Within two (2) business days after the Effective Date, Purchaser shall deposit with a title insurance agency selected by Purchaser and reasonably acceptable to Seller (the "Escrow Agent") Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) in cash or certified or cashier's check as earnest money (the "Earnest Money"). Purchaser shall have a period of thirty (30) days from the Effective Date of this Agreement ("Inspection Period") to conduct such investigative diligence with respect to the Property as Purchaser deems appropriate and to elect to either continue or terminate this Agreement. Purchaser may terminate this Agreement, and receive a full refund of the Earnest Money, by delivering written termination notice to Seller at any time prior to expiration of the Inspection Period. If Purchaser does not so terminate this Agreement, the Earnest Money shall thereafter be nonrefundable (except as expressly otherwise set forth in this Agreement) and this Agreement shall remain in effect.

Within five (5) days after the Effective Date, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser at Purchaser's sole expense the information more particularly described on Schedule 4 hereto to the extent such information is with Seller's possession or control (the "Due Diligence Materials").

Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that, except as otherwise expressly set forth in Section 9 herein, Seller has not made and will not make any representations or warranties, express or implied, pertaining to the Property, its condition or any other matters whatsoever, and that Purchaser will be relying solely on its own inspections and investigations with respect to the Property, its condition and all
Purchaser by written notice to Seller ("Title Objection Notice"). Purchaser may also object to any new matters thereafter revealed by a title or survey update by subsequent Title Objection Notice to Seller. Within ten (10) days after receipt of Purchaser's Title Objection Notice, Seller shall either (i) deliver written notice to Purchaser of any title or survey objections which Seller elects not to cure, or (ii) cure or satisfy such objections (or commence to cure or satisfy such objections as long as Seller reasonably believes such objections may be cured or satisfied at least five (5) business days prior to Closing). Seller's failure to deliver such written response within ten (10) days shall not be a default but shall be deemed as Seller's refusal to cure the matters contained in the Title Objection Notice. Within ten (10) days after receipt of Seller's written notification that Seller elects not to cure a title or survey objection (or Seller's failure to respond), Purchaser may terminate this Agreement and receive a full refund of the Earnest Money by delivering written notice thereof to Seller. If Purchaser does not so terminate this Agreement, then any such title or survey objection which Seller elects not to cure shall be deemed waived by Purchaser and shall be an additional Permitted Exception. If any objection which Seller elects to cure is not satisfied by Seller at least five (5) business days before the scheduled date of Closing, Seller may elect to extend the Closing date by up to thirty (30) additional days to cure any such objections. If Seller is still unable to cure said objections after the additional thirty (30) day period, then Purchaser shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, in which case the Earnest Money shall be returned to Purchaser and neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or duties under this Agreement. If Seller does cure or satisfy the objections at least five (5) business days prior to Closing, then this Agreement shall continue in effect. Any exception to or defect in title which Purchaser shall elect to waive, or which is otherwise acceptable to Purchaser, shall be deemed an additional Permitted Exception to title at Closing. Seller covenants and agrees not to alter or encumber in any way Seller's title to the Property after the date hereof.

9. Seller's Representations and Warranties. As of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date (as evidenced by Seller's downnote certificate to be provided at Closing), Seller represents, warrants and covenants to Purchaser that:

(a) There will be no parties in possession of any portion of the Property as lessees on the Closing Date, and no other party will have on the Closing Date an oral or written license, lease, option, purchase agreement or other right pertaining to the use, purchase or possession of any portion of the Property.

(b) Seller has not received any notice, nor is Seller aware, of any violation of any ordinance, regulation, law, statute, rule or restriction relating to the Property.

(c) Seller is duly organized and is validly existing under the laws of the State of Tennessee. Seller has the full right and authority to enter into this Agreement and to transfer all of the Property to be conveyed by Seller pursuant hereto and to consummate or cause to be consummated the transactions contemplated herein to be made by Seller. This Agreement constitutes, and all agreements and documents contemplated hereby (when executed and delivered pursuant hereto) will constitute, the valid and legally binding obligations of Seller, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms.

(d) Seller has not entered into any agreement to dispose of its interest in the Property or any part thereof, except for this Agreement.

(e) Seller is not a party to any litigation which is still pending, and knows of no threatened litigation, affecting or relating to the Property.

10. Broker and Broker's Commission. Seller and Purchaser represent and warrant that neither has dealt with any broker in connection with this transaction. If any claim is made or brought by any other broker in connection with this transaction, the party whose agreement gave rise to such claim shall indemnify the other for any damage or expenses sustained in connection therewith, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees. This Section shall survive the Closing of this transaction.

11. Survey and Inspection. Purchaser and Purchaser's agents, employees and independent contractors shall have the right and privilege to enter upon the Property during the Inspection Period to survey and inspect the Property and to conduct soil borings, environmental assessment and toxic waste studies and other geological, engineering or landscaping tests or studies, all at Purchaser's sole cost and expense. Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Seller from any and all loss, liability, cost, claim, demand, damage, action, cause of action and suit arising out of or in any manner related to the exercise by Purchaser of Purchaser's rights under this section (but not the existence of any condition discovered in the course of Purchaser's inspections and testing) and to repair any damage to the Property resulting from the exercise of Purchaser's rights hereunder. In the event Purchaser elects not to purchase the Property in accordance with its rights hereunder, the foregoing indemnity will survive and Purchaser will provide Seller with copies of all tests, studies, borings and surveys obtained by Purchaser as consideration for entering into this Agreement.

12. Seller's Covenants. Between the Effective Date and Closing, Seller shall (i) give to Purchaser immediate written notice of the institution of or receipt of notice of any litigation or threatened litigation affecting the Property which would in any way constitute or have the effect of presently or in the future creating a lien, claim or obligation of any kind against the Property; (ii) give Purchaser immediate notice upon the occurrence of any event, or receipt of any notice, which constitutes a breach by Seller of any of its representations or warranties set forth herein, (iii) not, without the prior written consent of Purchaser, impose, nor permit to be imposed upon the Property, any new or additional encumbrances to title; and (iv) not, without the prior written consent of Purchaser, enter into any agreement or instrument or take any action that would encumber the Property after Closing or that would bind Purchaser or the Property after Closing.

13. Development Agreement. Within sixty (60) days after the Effective Date, Purchaser and Seller shall agree upon the form of a Development Agreement relating to Purchaser's development of the Property. If the form of the Development Agreement is not agreed upon within sixty (60) days after the Effective Date, this Agreement shall automatically terminate, and the Earnest Money shall be refunded to Purchaser. The Development Agreement will contain such terms as are necessary for the orderly development of the Property, including the construction of certain public infrastructure improvements.

14. Reversionary Right. At Closing, the Property shall be encumbered by a reversionary right in the special warranty deed providing for reversion of the Property to Seller as provided in the Development Agreement. The reversionary right shall generally protect the interests of Seller in assuring construction of a residential apartment development as shown in the SW2 Form-Based zoning approved plans (see Exhibit B). The reversionary right shall generally provide that if construction of a residential apartment development does not commence within one year of the Closing Date and the Property is not developed according to the Development Agreement, the Property shall revert to Seller.

15. Notice. Each notice required or permitted to be given hereunder shall be sent by hand delivery, or by certified mail with return receipt requested and adequate postage prepaid, addressed to the appropriate party (and marked to a particular individual's attention) as hereinafter provided and shall be deemed effective upon such delivery or, in the case of notice sent by the mails, upon deposit in the U.S. mail, correctly addressed, with adequate prepaid postage affixed thereto. Rejection or other refusal by the addressee to accept shall be deemed to be receipt of the notice sent. The addresses of the parties to which notices are to be sent shall be those set forth on the signature page of this Agreement. Any party shall have the right from time to time to change the address to which notices to it shall be sent and to specify
Purchaser by written notice to Seller ("Title Objection Notice"). Purchaser may also object to any new matters thereafter revealed by a title or survey update by subsequent Title Objection Notice to Seller. Within ten (10) days after receipt of Purchaser's Title Objection Notice, Seller shall either (i) deliver written notice to Purchaser of any title or survey objections which Seller elects not to cure, or (ii) cure or satisfy such objections (or commence to cure or satisfy such objections as long as Seller reasonably believes such objections may be cured or satisfied at least five (5) business days prior to Closing). Seller's failure to deliver such written response within ten (10) days shall not be a default but shall be deemed as Seller's refusal to cure the matters contained in the Title Objection Notice. Within ten (10) days after receipt of Seller's written notification that Seller elects not to cure a title or survey objection (or Seller's failure to respond), Purchaser may terminate this Agreement and receive a full refund of the Earnest Money by delivering written notice thereof to Seller. If Purchaser does not so terminate this Agreement, then any such title or survey objection which Seller elects not to cure shall be deemed waived by Purchaser and shall be an additional Permitted Exception. If any objection which Seller elects to cure is not satisfied by Seller at least five (5) business days before the scheduled date of Closing, Seller may elect to extend the Closing date by up to thirty (30) additional days to cure any such objections. If Seller is still unable to cure said objections after the additional thirty (30) day period, then Purchaser shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, in which case the Earnest Money shall be returned to Purchaser and neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or duties under this Agreement. If Seller does cure or satisfy the objections at least five (5) business days prior to Closing, then this Agreement shall continue in effect. Any exception to or defect in title which Purchaser shall elect to waive, or which is otherwise acceptable to Purchaser, shall be deemed an additional Permitted Exception to title at Closing. Seller covenants and agrees not to alter or encumber in any way Seller's title to the Property after the date hereof.

9. Seller's Representations and Warranties. As of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date (as evidenced by Seller's downdate certificate to be provided at Closing), Seller represents, warrants and covenants to Purchaser that:

(a) There will be no parties in possession of any portion of the Property as lessees on the Closing Date, and no other party will have on the Closing Date an oral or written license, lease, option, purchase agreement or other right pertaining to the use, purchase or possession of any portion of the Property.

(b) Seller has not received any notice, nor is Seller aware, of any violation of any ordinance, regulation, law, statute, rule or restriction relating to the Property.

(c) Seller is duly organized and is validly existing under the laws of the State of Tennessee. Seller has the full right and authority to enter into this Agreement and to transfer all of the Property to be conveyed by Seller pursuant hereto and to consummate or cause to be consummated the transactions contemplated herein to be made by Seller. This Agreement constitutes, and all agreements and documents contemplated hereby (when executed and delivered pursuant hereto) will constitute, the valid and legally binding obligations of Seller, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms.

(d) Seller has not entered into any agreement to dispose of its interest in the Property or any part thereof, except for this Agreement.

(e) Seller is not a party to any litigation which is still pending, and knows of no threatened litigation, affecting or relating to the Property.

10. Broker and Broker's Commission. Seller and Purchaser represent and warrant that neither has dealt with any broker in connection with this transaction. If any claim is made or brought by two additional addresses to which copies of notices to it shall be mailed by giving to the other party at least seven (7) days' prior notice of the changed address or additional addresses.

16. Remedies. If this transaction fails to close by reason of Purchaser's wrongful failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, the Earnest Money shall be retained by Seller as liquidated damages the parties hereby acknowledging that Seller's actual damages in such circumstances would be difficult, if not impossible, to determine. Seller expressly acknowledges and agrees that retention of the Earnest Money as provided for herein shall be Seller's sole and exclusive remedy in the event of Purchaser's failure to perform its obligations hereunder. If this transaction fails to close for any reason other than Purchaser's wrongful failure to perform their obligations hereunder, the Earnest Money shall promptly be refunded to Purchaser. In the event Seller fails or refuses to convey the Property in accordance with the terms hereof or otherwise fails to perform its obligations hereunder, Purchaser shall have the right to a refund of all Earnest Money and the right to recover Purchaser's actual out-of-pocket expenses not to exceed $50,000.00.

17. Time of Essence. Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

18. Closing Documents. At or prior to Closing, each party shall deliver to the other party appropriate evidence to establish the authority of such party to enter into and close the transaction contemplated hereby. Seller also shall execute and deliver to Purchaser at Closing (i) special warranty deeds in the form to be included in the Development Agreement; (ii) a certificate with respect to Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code stating, among other things, that Seller is not a foreign corporation as defined in the Internal Revenue Code and I.R.S. Regulations; (iii) the Development Agreement; and (iv) such other documents reasonably necessary or appropriate to complete and evidence the transaction contemplated hereby, including without limitation a standard title company owner's affidavit. The parties shall also execute, deliver and record as applicable such documents as are reasonably required to implement the transaction contemplated herein, including, but not limited to, the Subdivision Plat.

19. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and may not be amended except by written instrument executed by Purchaser and Seller.

20. Headings. The section headings are inserted for convenience only and are in no way intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope or content of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

22. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors and permitted assigns.

23. Surviving Clauses. ### BACKGROUND

1. What’s the objective of the requested action?
   Authority to execute a change order under the TOA demolition contract. The not-to-exceed change order request of $165,000 is required to compensate TOA for additional time and resources to remove foundations under the legacy buildings which have foundation systems that are significantly larger and more robust than anticipated. Partners has evaluated the situation and has negotiated the change order based on their estimates of additional equipment and time.

2. Why is the action needed now?
   TOA is actively working on the demolition of Austin Homes structures. Demolition needs to be completed by the end of February in order to record the new plat and allow for the site infrastructure work to begin in March/April. This change order is needed now so that TOA can complete the removal of the buildings and foundations without having to cease work and return to the site at a later date to remove the foundations.

3. Who are the parties involved and what are their roles (if appropriate)?
   TOA is the demolition contractor and has requested the change order. Partners Development is KCDC’s project manager and owner’s rep.

4. What are the long term and short term exposures to KCDC?
   The only risks are normal construction liability risks. The total cost of demolition of Austin Homes will be reimbursed to KCDC under a funding agreement with COK that covers the infrastructure development and related costs at Austin Homes.

HISTORICAL / TRANSACTIONAL INFORMATION (who, when, where)

The Board previously approved the TOA demolition contract.
